

Maryland Marriage Officiant Information

Maryland – Officiate does not have to register. Any Ordained or Commissioned Minister may officiate. Couples need a marriage license from the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the County where the marriage will occur. License is good for 6 months and there is a 24 hr. waiting period after obtaining the marriage license. Consult Clerk of the Circuit Court web page in the county where the marriage will occur.

For An Example of a Clerk's Court:

<https://www.courts.state.md.us/clerks/calvert/marriagelicense>